

Auburn Symphony Orchestra 4th of July Playlist

A list of patriotic orchestral works to help you celebrate Independence Day!

Celebrate the 4th of July with Auburn Symphony Orchestra (ASO). Music Director Wesley Schulz has curated a selection of orchestral songs about the American experience that will put you in a celebratory mood. The music is available as a shared Spotify playlist and can be found on the website <https://www.auburnsymphony.org/watch-and-listen> and on their social media pages (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram.)

Auburn Symphony has a number of digital offerings patrons can enjoy from home. As part of Symphony Sundays, ASO selects a different piece of music from the archives each week. The live recording is released on SoundCloud and a member of the orchestra introduces the piece and its significance via video. Both audio and video links are distributed in a weekly email and posted on social media.

More can be found on the Auburn Symphony website. The Watch and Listen page is updated regularly with links to Auburn Symphony recordings as well as streaming content from other local and national music organizations. The Learn from Home page is updated regularly with music education content appropriate for all ages.

More information is always available at auburnsymphony.org or by calling the Auburn Symphony office at 253-887-7777.
